EXCELDA NAMED ONE OF THE 2010 TOP WORKPLACES BY THE DETROIT FREE PRESS.

Brighton, Michigan, November 14, 2010 – The Detroit Free Press is honoring 105 workplaces this year, the third year for the awards and the first year they have been open to businesses from throughout Michigan. The Top Workplaces survey found that what distinguishes the best workplaces from the others is not pay and benefits. Those are important, but what workers really value are employers that are going in the right direction, have strong leaders and are doing things ethically. The top workplaces also know how to make workers feel appreciated.

The survey was open to all businesses and organizations with at least 50 employees, and the competition gathered and analyzed responses from 41,291 employees across the state. This year, Excelda Manufacturing was nominated as a 2010 Top Workplace by the Detroit Free Press.

This is another fantastic example showcasing how Excelda strives to be the best place for the best people! It is through every Excelda Associate's teamwork that they continue to reach and surpass their goals.
